

Christian Church

At American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent of Bible school. There have been four additions to the church in the last two Sundays, and the Sunday school has reached high-water mark. So the interest is surely on the increase from week to week. Some were there last Sunday for the first time, just finding out that there was a Christian church in Torrance. Suppose we make next Sunday "Church Sunday," and every member of the Christian church, whether in Torrance or members elsewhere, resolve to attend church services at American Legion hall. Bible school begins at 10 a. m. Communion and sermon at 11 a. m. Preaching services at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these services, and Christian church people are urged to attend.

A spiritual contest is now on between the ladies' Bible class and the men's Brotherhood class to see which side can obtain the most members this next four weeks. The ladies are leading now, but just wait Mr. Solomon, our Sunday school superintendent, was very glad to announce 106 at Sunday school last Sunday. The Lord is blessing our church very much through new members and the large number of strangers present at our meetings. Everybody welcome. Come and hear Mr. Green preach an evangelistic sermon next Sunday evening song service. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 o'clock. B. Y. P. P., 6:45 p. m. Evening song service, 7:30 p. m. It is very fitting that we pause to do honor to one to whom the whole world is paying its tribute of respect at this time. The pastor will speak at the evening service. Miss Rose Rothleder will sing "Rock of Ages," by Rœmnick. The Sigma Chi Rho glee club, composed of the young ladies of the Sunday school, will make their first public appearance. The public is invited to all services. The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m. Orchestra rehearsal Tuesday evening.

Methodist Church

"Pure, Unadulterated Religion." The world is not calling aloud for cuts or creeds or isms today—too many of them now. But pure religion, practical, up to the minute, honest-to-goodness, something that will help a man to be honest before God and true to his fellow man, is the thing we need. Come out next Sunday morning and hear about it. In the evening Dr. Morris will give the last in the series of talks to young people on "That Mother-in-Law." There were many strangers out last Sunday morning. Such are always welcome at this church.

The young people had a great gathering last Tuesday evening at the church, with a banquet and social hour. The Epworth league is to be reorganized. To this end all the young folks are urgently invited to meet at the church parlors next Sunday evening at 6:30. Don't be a minute late.

LOMITA COMMUNITY CHURCH

"The Youth of Today" was the subject of the morning message, using the text, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." Reluctantly we admit that juvenile crime is on the increase all over our land. Our juvenile courts are filled with boys and girls of tender age who have committed their first or second offense against the law. What is the remedy? Better homes. More careful parental supervision. Give as much attention to your boy and girl as you do to your automobile, the family dog or family cat. You know where the dog and cat are at night. Do you know where your children are?

Children are not to blame so much as their parents. Let us understand from the first that training children is not a light and easy task. It takes time, great patience, love, forbearance, and prayer. But is it abundantly worth while.

Not only are parents responsible for the training of the young; all adults are responsible. Field Marshal Haig said during the great war, "Education is the eternal debt that maturity owes to children and youth." All adults touch children some time, somewhere, and make their impression on the growing youth. If the United States of 1930 and 1940 is to be a better country of high moral character, if the Christian church is to continue to be a power for good and for the salvation of men, we must prepare the boys and girls of today to be leaders of tomorrow. Are we doing it?

The music of the day was very good. In the morning the choir was heard in the anthem, "There Is a Friend." In the evening the choir director, Charles Eade, sang the solo, "We Would See Jesus." Next Sunday at the morning service the subject will be "Woodrow Wilson, Christian Statesman." In the evening a Boy Scout night will be held.

LOMITA GOSPEL MISSION

The Sunday school is growing in interest. We had a good attendance last Sunday. The children's song service was enjoyed by old and young, as was the evening song service.

The morning sermon was a real old-time gospel sermon, as was the evening discourse. The morning lesson was I Tim. 2:1-8; text, I Tim. 2:8. The evening theme was "The Holy City" (Rev. 21:1-4); "The Eternal State of the City" (Rev. 21:21-27); "The Millennial State" (text, Rev. 22:14).

Children's song service next Sunday morning at 9:30. Sunday school, 9:45; Rev. Elliott, superintendent.

Rev. Hill and wife, both preachers, will begin a meeting this coming Thursday, Feb. 7, lasting over Sunday, Feb. 10. Sunday services as follows: Preaching at 11 a. m. and holiness meeting at 2:30 p. m. Song service at 7:10 p. m., and evangelistic meeting at 7:30 p. m. All are welcome.

Prayer meeting on Thursdays at 7:30 p. m. Our prayer meeting last Thursday evening was well attended.

Bible class at the Welte home, 2841 Brethren street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, and every Friday at the Mills and Thomas home, 3031 Miller street. All are welcome.

Rev. and Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Dampf motored to Santa Ana Tuesday to attend an all-day meeting at the Nazarine church. They report fine sermons and good music.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bowie, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodard and Mrs. Ella Archer, of Brea, were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Elliott of Brethren street last Thursday. They met with us in our evening prayer circle at the Gospel Mission. We were pleased to have Mrs. Bowie with us. We always enjoy her singing and playing.
